Minista. Entrous :— Our country was varied to on the evening of the 4th lust, with the most destructive tornado which has aver passed over it—sweeping everything before it, and leaving death and destruction behind it. Fences were torn down, trees were torn from their roots, houses and having unroughed and completely demonstrated, and in some lustances scarcely a vertice left to self-uncertainty. vestign left to tell where circs stood a fine dwelling of a stately harm. The force of the tornado was so great that it swept hogs from their pens and chried them over two or three fences, and left them east with source a brains of chick. I saw a cow that was taken from the varid and case the force inter If beliefs. I saw a cow that was taken from the yard and over the fence into the read, and left for dead. I never witnessed such complete destruction as I did yesterday, in the course of this terrific whirlwind. It appears to have struck the county at Albany, on the Misaiseippi, where it destroyed a large amount of property and killed accreal persons. From thence it was the first destroyed a time to the property and hilled accreal persons. From thence it was the first destroyed as the first destroyed as the property in the course, but what number of lives were just I have not learned, matil it struck the southwest of our township, where it destroyed a large frame building and sejured several or
